”سيد القوم خادهم”

“The master of the people is their servant.”

Our late founder, Mr. Mohamed Said, AKA Serry, had a famous saying “Sayed El Qawm Khademhom” which translates to: The master of the people is their servant.

Serry is built around this saying and we believe that nothing reflects this more than a truly thoughtful & human centered hospitality experience. Similar to hosting people in one’s own home, at Serry we get the pleasure of serving & offering people an experience of true warmth and abundance.

Serry is a true reflection of the founder’s personality; a family man, simple, warm, inviting, fun, generous, loves a good thrill & excitement.

Serry is an exciting new chapter ahead that is guided by the appreciation of what preceded it.

Our legacy

In 1983, our company, Credence Hospitality Developments was born. Our founders began with a simple brand ethos, to create mindful, human-centric hospitality experiences that celebrate the beauty and warmth of the Egyptian culture.

Over the decades we have presented holidaymakers with an abundance of truly meaningful moments of exceptional quality. Enhancing bespoke holiday experiences one step further, we have now conceived Serry Beach Resort. Built upon the footprint of one of our former success stories, Serry is reinventing Hurghada's hospitality narrative.

As human nature has evolved, so have we. More than ever before, our guests are desiring to feel deeper, genuine connections. Not just a resort to spend your precious time, Serry invites you to connect to the compelling surrounds, local heritage, with others, and our team of passionate people.

As we continue to grow, we invite you to join us on our journey and discover why those in the know return to us year after year.
